08. Method of Applying:

The online examination application form should be completed in English only. The Department will notify the applicant that the soft copy submitted online is accepted/not accepted as a valid application by sending a short message (SMS) to the mobile phone number used to access the system or by sending an e-mail to the e-mail address. Before completing the online application form, download the instructions prepared for applying for the examination. Follow the instructions carefully while filling the application form. Any amendment made to the application form after obtaining a printed copy will not be considered as a valid amendment. Incomplete applications will be rejected without notice.

09. Admission to the Examination:

- I. The Commissioner General of Examinations will issue examination admission cards online only to the candidates who have submitted duly completed applications on or before the last date of receipt of applications on the basis that only those who meet the qualifications mentioned in the Gazette notification have applied. Immediately after the examination admission cards are issued, the Sri Lanka Examinations Department will inform the candidates about it through a web notification/SMS. If a candidate has not received his/her admission card, he/she should inquire about it from the Institutional Examinations Organization Branch of the Sri Lanka Examinations Department as mentioned in the notification. When making such inquiry, it would be more effective for the applicant to send a request letter to the email address mentioned in the web notification, stating the name of the examination he/she has applied for, the full name of the applicant, the National Identity Card number and the address correctly. It would be useful to keep a photocopy of the completed application form and a photocopy of the receipt of payment of the examination fee in order to substantiate any information sought by the Examination Department. If any amendments are required after checking the admission card, the Examination Department should be contacted in good time and the relevant amendments should be made as per the application. Requests for amendments made at the examination hall/interview will not be entertained.

- II. The issuance of an examination admission card to a candidate, shall not be considered as an admission that he or she has fulfilled the qualifications to appear for the examination or is suitable for the post.
- III. The applicant's signature must be attested on the admission card for the examination. An applicant applying for the examination from a government institution should have his/her signature attested by the head of the institution or an officer authorized by him/her, while an applicant who is not a government institution should have his/her signature attested by a head of a government school, Grama Niladhari of a division, a Justice of the Peace, a Commissioner of Oaths, a lawyer, a notary public, an authorized officer of the armed forces, an officer in the government or provincial public service or a permanent staff grade officer or the chief incumbent or head monk of a Buddhist temple or a person in charge of a place of worship of another religion or holding a significant position in the clergy. An applicant appearing for the examination should submit his admission card after having his signature attested to the examination hall supervisor. A candidate who fails to produce the admission card will not be allowed to sit for the examination.
- IV. A candidate must sit for the examination at the examination hall assigned to him/her. Every candidate should surrender the Admission Card to the Supervisor of the hall, on the first day of the examination, before he/she sits for the examination. A set of rules to be observed by all candidates is published in this Gazette.

10. Fees for the Examination:

The fee for the examination is Rs. 1,200/-. The payment of the examination fee should be made only under the following payment methods provided in the online system.

- i. Any Bank Credit Card
- ii. Any Bank Debit Card with the Facility of Internet Transaction
- iii. Online Banking Method / Flex App of Bank of Ceylon

- I. National Identity Card
- II. A Valid Passport
- III. A Valid Sri Lankan Driving License

Also, the candidates should enter the examination hall without covering their faces and ears so that their identity can be verified and to be verified that they are not wearing electronic communication devices. Candidates who refuse to prove their identities will not be admitted to the examination hall. Furthermore, the candidates should remain without covering the face and the ears from the moment of entering the examination hall until the end of the examination and leaving.

12. Issue of Results:

Candidates who obtain maximum qualifications as per paragraph 06 of this notification will be referred for an eligibility assessment interview and a list of results on the basis of aggregate marks obtained by them for both these assessments, in a number equal to the number of vacancies, shall be sent to the Secretary, Public Service Commission. Thereafter, the results will be communicated personally to all the candidates who appeared for the examination or published on the website www.results.exams.gov.lk as per the directions of the Public Service Commission. The decision of the Commissioner General of Examinations regarding the examination results shall be final.

13. Furnishing of false Information:

If the details furnished by the candidate in his/her application are found to be false or incorrect before the recruitment, his/her candidature will be cancelled. If such particulars furnished are found to be false or incorrect after the recruitment, the candidate will be dismissed from the service as per the rules and regulations.

- 14. Candidates are subject to the rules and regulations imposed by the Commissioner General of Examinations regarding the conduct of the examination. Violation of those rules will result in a penalty imposed by the Commissioner General of Examinations.
- 15. Any matter provide for in the Gazette Notification will be dealt with as determined by the Public Service Commission. Public Service Commission reserves the right to fill the vacancies, wholly or partly or not to fill any vacancy.
- 16. If there is any discrepancy with regard to the interpretation of Sinhala, Tamil and English texts, the Sinhala version shall prevail.
- 17. The effective date of the appointment will be the date on which the appointment letters are issued or a later date as decided by the Public Service Commission.
